This information is maintained on the internet hosting providers' server which is protected by them to maintain the security of this data. Any information that we download from the site is solely for our use and protected in the same manner that other, written information we currently have is protected. We are very mindful of the limits that Florida law, particularly FS 720, places on our ability to release private information. We make every possible effort to comply with the limitations contained therein and will not release such information without your consent.

Cookies

Cookies are used by our website to improve your visit. These cookies are used to keep you signed in and to interact with the site.

Third Parties

We never sell our Members' or Visitors' information to third parties. Select information may be shared with third parties in order to provide services you request. Examples would include our internet service provider, email delivery provider, and in the event you ask for maintenance like vacant lot mowing, maintenance providers.

Our website contains links to certain third parties. We assume no responsibility for the privacy of these organizations, and encourage you to read their policies.

Emails

We consider emails to be records of the Association and as such are kept for a period of at least seven (7) years. All of our records are available for inspection by our Members.
